Important Cancellation Notice:

- Minor international student (under 19 in BC) "MUST be cared for by a responsible adult in Canada." "Custodianship requires that legal arrangements be made to give the custodian in Canada permission to act in place of a parent" (source: www.cic.gc.ca). Once the documents are signed and notarized, the custodianship is legal and effective until the student turns 19 years of age.
- In the event where the student wants to change a custodian, it's the student's responsibility to arrange a new custodian and have the new documents notarized. To officially end the relationship, the student must give a copy of the new custodian document to our school or directly to the current custodian.
